MRS. VANDER POEL HOSTESS AT DANCE

Party for Her Cousin, Miss Margaret Billings of Chicago.

OTHER ENTERTAINMENTS

Friday Evening Club Dance and Supper-Lecture at Mrs. Campbell's.

Mrs. William Haisted Vander Poel gave a dance last night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings, on Fort Washington road, for her cousin, Miss Margaret Billings of Chicago. It was a small party, attended by some of Mr. and Mrs. Vander Poel's young married friends and others. There was general dancing, and after midnight a buffet supper was served. supper was served.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn I. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Poel, Mr. and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Poel, Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Minton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Montant, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root Stein, Mrs. William A. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Locke, the Misses Ella and Constance McCall, Margaret French and Midred Harbeck; W. Lee Gwynne, Theodore Crane, Douglas Green, Theron R. Strong, George Washington, Sydney McCall, Charles West, Jr., Thomas Eastman, Clifford McCall and Makcolm Hunter. The regular meeting of the Friday Evering Club was held last night in the Della Robbia room of the Vanderbilt. The hosts Robbia room of the Vanderbilt. The hosts of the night were Richard Peters, Charles

 Wetmore, Altonso de Navarro, Horace C. Sicbbins, Lydig Hoyt, William W. Hoff-man and Francis Roche.
 Some of those who gave suppers were Some of those who gave suppers were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Cars, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Cakleigh Thorne, Mrs. William Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Oilver Harriman, Gerald Hull Gray, Mr. and Mrs. De Lancey Nicoll, Miss Elsie de Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Andrews, W. Bruce Brown, Stephen Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. G. Jason Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pense, J. Ellis Postlethwaite, Seth Sprägue, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. D. Lanier and Harry A. Curtis, The room was decorated with Southern smilaz and wistaria and on the tables were Japanese cherry trees. There was general dancing before and after supper.

general dancing before and after supper.

Charles Gibson of Boston gave the first of a series of lectures on "Court Life in the Nineteenth Century" yesterday in the Nineteenth Century" yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell, 25 East Sixty-second street. His subject was "Queen Victoria." Mr. Gibson's long residence in England, while Victoria was Queen gave him the opportunity to study many events of interest. tunity to study many events of interest in her reign

Among the subscribers to these lectures are Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. A. Lanfear Norrie, Mrs. John Innes Kane, Mrs. Samwell W. Bridgham, Mrs. William Alexander, Mrs. Burke Roche, Miss Josephine Coster, Mrs. John J. Mason, Mrs. Carl A. De Gers-dorff, Mrs. Lauterbach, Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite, Mrs. Hamilton Fish and Mrs. Allen G. Wellmap.

The next lecture of the course will be given at the home of Mrs. John J. Mason on March 6, when "Napoleon III." will be Mr. Gibson's tople.

DANCERS AT WHITE SULPHUR.

Miss Helen L. Appleton Engaged. Mr. and Mrs. R. Ross Appleton of 146 Hecht, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers, Mr. oralemon street, Brooklyn, have an and Mrs. Edward Hay and Miss Connounced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Helen Lincoln Appleton, to Charles A. Read, Jr., of Boston. Mr. Read is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Read, who have a country place, Read's Island, at Manchester-by-the-Sea, He was graduated from Harvard No date has been mentioned for the wedding. Miss Appleton's father purchased recently an orange grove in Florida and will make his home there.

For the benefit of prison reform work ir. and Mrs. Francis Rogers and Bruno Huhn will give an afternoon of music and recitations at the Women's Cosmopolitan ub, 135 East Fortieth street, on March

The woman's auxiliary of the New York Polyclinic Hospital will give a Mi-Careme dance at Delmonico's on the night of March 20. Among the patronesses are Mrs. P. A. Valentine, Mrs. Almuth Vandiver, Mrs. Daniel O'Day, Mrs. Julian Gerard, Mrs. William R. Hearst, Mrs. J. Stuart Blackton and Mrs. H. Hartley Jenkins

Bryan: "My friend is a little strenuous, but he is a great patriot."

EMMA THURSBY HOSTESS.

street, for Cyril Maude and his daugnter Miss Marjorie Maude. Among the guests colors. Mrs. Orme Wilson gave $500 for Miss Marjorie Maude. Among the guests colors. Mrs. Orme Wilson gave $500 for Mrs. J. Russell Soley, Mr. and Mrs. No. 561, a tall beaker shaped Yung-Cheng wase with cream white ground and figures Howland, Mrs. Edward N. Breitung, Miss in brilliant enamel colors, and $260 for No. 569, a cylindrical club shaped wase Juliet Breitung. F. S. Church, Victor

WEDDINGS.

Kirk-Page.

YONKERS, Feb. 27 .- Miss Ethel Gertrude Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. is president of the Security Bank of New Louis F. A. Page of 18 Carroll street, and Hugh Dalrymple Kirk of New York city were married on Tuesday evening, Miss Eleanor V. Imman Engaged.

The engagement of Miss Eleanor Virginia Inman to Herbert S. Regers was announced yesterday at Florence Villia, Fla., where Miss Inman's mother, Mrs. F.

W. Inman is provided by the Rev. W. J. Noonan. The plaze, for $300, both to Jacob Ruppert, point of the Ch'ien-lung period, for $300, and the parents by the Rev. W. J. Noonan. The plaze, for $300, both to Jacob Ruppert, provided was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin father. The word of the Ch'ien-lung period, for $300, and the parents by the Rev. W. J. Noonan. The parents trimmed with duchess lace and carried Inman, is spending the winter. The trimmed with duchess face and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilles of dance given by Mrs. Inman. Mr. of the valley. Miss Annie Wheatley was gers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Plainfield, N. J. He has rechased recently an orange grove in ordina and will make his home there.

The trimmed with duchess face and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilles of the valley. Miss Annie Wheatley was the bridesmaid. The best man was David Land and will make his home there.

The trimmed with duchess face and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilles of the valley. Miss Annie Wheatley was the bridesmaid. The best man was David Land and will make his home there. Dinners will be given this evening by Mrs. Henry Clews, Mrs. J. Todhunter Thompson and Mrs. A. Murray Young.

For the benefit of prison references.

Battell Loomis, son of the late author, and Miss Josephine M. A. H. Bell of Bermuda were married in the Cathedral at Hamilton, Bermuda, February 14. Mr. and Mrs. Loomis arrived yesterday from the islands and are at 53 Pineapple

In New York To-day.

Architectural League, exhibition, Fine Arts Building, 215 West Fifty-seventh

Ship News Reporters Association, din-ner, Kalil's, 30 Park place, 6:30 P. M. United Real Estate Owners Association, of 51 East Seventy-eighth street left yesterday for the South, to remain until the carly part of April.

The Duchess de Chaulnes has gone to Asheville, N. C., to join Mrs. Theodere P. Shonts and Miss Marguerite Shorts.

Brothren of the Amen Corner, dinner, There are 170,000 separate pictures on the film and the story of d'Artagnan and his companions is followed with fidelity. Much is made of the numerous encounters between the king's musketeers and the cardinal's guards.

TWO THREE COLOR VASES $2,600.

pair. Gorer of London paid $640 for a pair of Yung-Cheng vases with original covers that are of inverted pear shape.

No. 540; Kaldenberg & Son of the same period.

Mr. Gorer of London paid $640 for a pair of Yung-Cheng vases with original covers that are of inverted pear shape, No. 540; Kaldenberg & Son gave $280 for No. 540; Kaldenberg & Son gave $280 for No. 549; a pair of famille verte ginger jars of the Ming period, and Yamanaka & Co. paid $725 for No. 565, a tall club shaped K'ang-hsi vase in famille verte.

Other sales were No. 563, a famille verte vase of the K'ang-hsi period, to S. S. Laird for $410; No. 543, a pair of K'airg-hsi vases, to H. Hamberger for $120; No. 550, a blue enamel ginger jar of the Ch'ien-lung period, for $300, and No. 555, a blue ginger jar of powder blue glaze, for $300, both to Jacob Ruppert, Jr.; No. 596, a bottle shaped K'ang-hsi vase, to Mr. Oshima for $210, and the beautiful Celadon tripod jar, No. 637, to beautiful Celadon tripod jar, beautiful Celadon tripod jar, No. 6 Miss R. H. Lorenz, agent, for $600. The total for the session was $17,-784.50, making the Carvalho collection to date $64,785. The sale continues this

MRS. MARY A. BLAIR'S WILL. Bequests of $5,000 Each to New Public Institutions.

BELVIDERE, N. J., Feb. 28 .- The will of Mary A. Blair, wife of De Witt Clinton Blair of 6 East Sixty-first street, New York, and Bar Harbor. Me., was filed here to-day. She left all the furniture, pictures and furnishings in the Blair home to her husband, and to her son, C. Ledyard Blair, she bequeathed the family portraits, antique cheek, royal Turkish portraits, antique cheste, royal Turkish rugs, a Venetian cabinet 300 years old, vases and other family heirlooms.

Another son, J. Insley Blair, receives valuable tapestries, gold and silver tea sets and paintings. Other bequests are: Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church, $5,000; International Com-mittee of the Y. M. C. A. of New York, $5,000; New York City Mission and Tract

United Real Estate Owners Association, Market Party on Juch Wellman will give and control of the Market Party of April Market Raymond McCune gave a dinner last night at the Vanderbille for Roberto Leguia, who will leave soon for Roberto R at the Poinciana included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brokaw, John Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whitney, Mrs. Warren Kinney and Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand L. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard D. Hanna arrived from Cleveland. Arrivals at the Breakers included Mr. and of Judge Alton B. Parker, started for home after a two months stay in Ashe-ville. Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell and Miss Louise Campbell of St. Louis resumed their journey south from here. They will go to Cuba and return here in

NEW PALM BEACH CHORUS.

BARNARD SOPHOMORES' HOP. Begins at Early Candle Light and Includes Modern Dances. The annual hop of the sophomores of Barnard College was held in the Thomp-son gymnasium at Columbia University last night. Because of the ban by the faculty on dancing after midnight the girls started their dance two hours earlier than had been planned and the large swing at 8 o'clock.

The Barnard girls danced the turkey trot, tango, hesitation and maxixe, as there was no ban on any sort of dance.

The patronesses were Dean Virginia C. The patronesses were Dean Virginia C. Griscom collection.

The names of the artists, titles of the names of the artists, titles of the collection.

The names of the artists, titles of the names of the artists.

$23,000 PAID FOR A THACKERAY MS.

'The Rose and the Ring" Brings Record Price at the Lambert Sale.

GEORGE D. SMITH BUYER

"Adventures of Philip" Fetches $12,000-Total of Auction Is $142,635.

An original Thackeray manuscript brought $23,000 at yesterday afternoon's session in the sale of the Thackeray library of Major Lambert at the Anderson galleries. It was the manuscript of "The Rose and the Ring." George D. Smith, who has been the most prominent bidder throughout the sale, bought it.

Mr. Smith also paid $12,100 at the session last night, which ended the sale for the original manuscript of "The Adventures of Philip." The sale totalled $142,635.

The $23,000 paid for the manuscript of "The Rose and the Ring" is the highest price a modern manuscript has brought.

Durand-Ruel

Durand-Ruel

Orient in Mr. Morl

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Sennett

Sennett

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Senter

George Elits, agent

Corot, "Neiselles Jacque, "In the Sheepote"; M. Knoedler & Co.

Land In Rules Depart of the Maling the Net"; George Elits, agent fant'; Bohler & Steinmeyer.

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Security Mr. Morl

Sennett

Security Mr. Morl

Security Mr. Morl An original Thackeray manuscript

"The Rose and the Ring" is the highest price a modern manuscript has brought. The $12,100 bid for "The Adventures of Philip" had never been approached before yesterday's session. Records at the Anderson galleries showed the highest price for a modern manuscript to have been $2.20 which Lyring's "Life of Gold-price for a modern manuscript to have been $4,250, which Irving's "Life of Goldsmith" brought at the Hoe sale on April 24, 1911.

"The Rose and the Ring" manuscript was written and illustrated by Thackeray on ninety pages of paper of oblong shape. It was mounted on heavy drawing paper of oblong quarto size and bound in red levant morocco with gilt tooled back and sides and gilt edged. It was enclosed in a red levant morocco slipcase, which in turn was enclosed in a leather case, with lock Collections From Three Librari The manuscript was listed as

Livingston, E. D. North and George D. Smith sent the price up by thousand dollar jumps until Mr. Smith's bid of $23,000 was made.

"The Adventures of Philip" manuscript was written on 519 sheets of paper of various sizes, carefully inlaid to large quarto and bound in three volumes. Many considered it the most important Thackconsidered it the most important according to the considered it the most important according to the consideration of the consideration of the consideration of the confess were struck off for members of the family. The same buyer paid $1,000 last night for the original manufacture of the confess of the consideration of the confess of t script of Thackeray's lecture on George IV. Yesterday afternoon he paid $1,700 for a first edition of "Vanity Fair," No. 899 in the catalogue, with illustrations on sicel and wood by the author. Inserted programme was composed of example.

the Plaza Hotel under the direction of the American Art Association the top price was $10,200, paid by the Durand-Ruel Company for the large Courbet picture, "The Countrymen of Flagey Returning from the Fair." The Metropolitan Museum of Art bid $10,100. Mr. Durand-Ruel said after the sale that the picture, which his house sold to Mr. Griscom some years ago for about $6,000, would return to France.

The sensation of the evening was the withdrawal of the landscape by George inent place in the Griscom collection. Through the death of Mr. Griscom and the absence of any record of its purchase it is impossible to locate the selier of the painting at present. Not until after it had been placed on public exhibition in our gallerles was doubt expressed as to the authenticity of the picture, and, like all doubts expressed regarding every painting by Inness, Wyant and Homer Martin which have come before the public in recent years, these doubts were guardedly expressed and mostly with the inevitable 'if,' and as such could not be accepted.

given us his opinion in writing that this painting is not the work of his father, it will, by the consent of the owner, be withdrawn from sale and returned to the owner for further investigation. owner for further investigation and action."

With a great buzz of comment on the part of the audience the green velvet curtains then shut out from sight the painting "Golden Autumn." The Corot landscape sold for $9,100 and the Harpignies "Bay of Naples" for his entire estate to his wife, Mary W.

850

Cox.

Mary B. W. Chapin, who died on February S, left no will. Her sister, Rosalic
B. Stone of 144 Madison avenue, applied yesterday for letters of administration.

The estate is valued at $25,000.

Concluding Sessions

THIS AFTERNOON AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

Concluding on Monday next at the same hour. At the American Art Galleries

The Extraordinary Carvalho Collection of Beautiful Old Chinese Porcelains

Madison Square South, New York

The sale will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY assisted by Mr. Otto Bernet, of

THE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Mgrs. 6 East 23d Street, Madison Sq. South, New York.

4,700

VALUABLE BOOKS AT SILO'S. enclosed in a leather case, with lock Collections From Three Libraries to Be Sold This Evening.

No. 1016.

The "History of Prince Giglio and Prince Bulbo," as the story is called, is a fairy tale Thackeray conceived with no thought of publication and solely to amuse little Pen Browning and the neighboring children while the author was in Rome in the winter of 1853. A number of the illustrations are in colors. The manuscript has many differences from the printed text.

In the front of the book is an autograph letter from Anne Thackeray Ritchie telling of the writing of the book. Major Lambert is said to have paid $12,000 for the manuscript in 1896.

A collection of books from the libraries of three bibliophiles is to be sold by order of L. E. Watson in Silo's Fifth avenue art galleries this evening.

In the collection of books from the libraries of three bibliophiles is to be sold by order of L. E. Watson in Silo's Fifth avenue art galleries this evening.

In the collection are Elizabeth Barrett Browning's "Sonnets from the Portuguese," bound in full crushed levant, with oblighing by the Women's Guild (Edinburgh): a large paper edition of Dickens with original water color drawings, besides well known proof plates by Cruikshank and Phiz, bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the "Art and Analysis of Dancing From the Earliest Times," both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times," both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times, "both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times," both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times, "both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times," both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times, "both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times," both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times, "both bound in full crushed levant finely tooled; two volumes on the Carliest Times," bot Lambert is said to have paid $12,000 for the manuscript in 1826.

Charles Sessler, a Philadelphia dealer, started the bidding for "The Rose and the Ring" at $10,000. W. M. Hill, Dodd E. Llyingston, E. D. North and Green R. Meredith; the "Life of Parks Meredith; the "Life of Peter Paul Ru-bens," with Riviere binding and miniature inlay; one of the illustrated editions of Shakespeare (Constable, Edinburgh), limited to twenty-six (alphabetic) sets with marginal water color drawings, hand colored illustrations and inlaid crushed le vant binding, and a set of the large type library edition of Thackeray's complete writings, with the entire original illus trations and additional water color ings, bound in full crushed levant.

THE BEETHOVEN FESTIVAL.

Kurteel Quartet in a Pro-

the spring season at the New York and will teach the new dances here. Next western that the debut as a proof which make the the western that the wholes of the American Indians. Among a start Field's home in New York and will teach the new dances here. Next western the American Indians. Among the chules were the morning with her daught and the proof the session. These there has a session that the price of the session that the price of the spring season at the New York and will teach the new dances here. Next western the session that the price of the session. These the price of the session that the price of the session. The session the session that the price of the session. The session the session that the price of the session the session that the price of the session that the The fourth concert of the Beethoven

est ought naturally to come to its climax

MOZART'S "MAGIC FLUTE."

The Tuneful Opera Repeated With

Inness from the sale. The picture was shown on the piatform and then Mr. Kirby read impressively the following statement:

"This painting, No. 51 on the catalogue the cast. Death removed Mr. Griswold the cast. of the Griscom collection, was acquired in 1894 and has since that time held a prominent place in the Griscom collection. Through the death of Mr. Griscom and Urlus. The place of the former as Sarascepted.

"However, when one of acknowledged authority gives an opinion over his own signature he not only deserves our admiration but his opinion demands due plan and it is frankly tuneful. And it is

Maurice J. Thompson. HACKENSACK, N. J., Feb. 27 .- Maurice

J. Thompson, principal of Public School 70, at Seventy-fifth street and Third avenue, Manhattan, died in the Hackensack Hospital to-day of intestinal trouble. He was born at Pella. Iowa, in 1867, a son of the Rev. Abraham Thompson. He of the Rev. Abraham Thompson. was graduated from Rutgers College 1889. He taught in the State College Pennsylvania, the Brooklyn Manual Training School and the High School of Commerce in New York. He was a grad-uate of the New York Law School and was a member of the Bergen County, New His wife and

Mrs. Louise M. R. Britain.

Mrs. Louise M. R. Brittain, who was the widow of E. J. Brittain and under the stage name of Adelaide Roselle was known to theatregoers of a generation ago and was said to be the first woman of English birth to take out naturalization papers in this country, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Kennington, 600 645 Sanford avenue, Flushing, Queens, on 725 Thursday, aged 70 years. She made her first appearance on the stage when she was 17 years old. She was married to Mr. Brittain in Dover in 1864. Mrs. Britt-950
1.125 win Booth, William H. Crant and John 675
McCullough in their early days.

PATERSON, N. J., Feb. 27 .- Mrs. Marcia

2.800 725 2,200

A. Van Dyk, wife of Francis C. Van Dyk, vice-president of the Second National Bank on this city, died this morning at her home, 357 Broadway, in her 700 sixty-ninth year. She was the daughter 4.600 of John Marston of Saratoga Springs. She was a member of the Church of the 160 Redeemer and belonged to the board of trustees of the boys' department of the Young Men's Christian Association. She was identified with many of Paterson's charities, notably the Orphan Asylum. Mrs. Van Dyk leaves no children.

Arthur Lewis.

Arthur Lewis,

Arthur Lewis of 275 Clinton street,
Brooklyn, vice-president of the Swan &
Finch Oil Company, died on Thursday at Saranac Lake as a result of a fall while playing golf at the Country Club at Sound Beach, Conn., last summer. When he went to the Adirondacks about seven weeks ago he was supposed to be suffering from tuberculosis, but it soon developed that the trouble was caused by an injury in the golf accident. Mr. Lewis was born in Canada in 1863, His wife and an adopted daughter curvive him.

Mrs. Emily E. Griffin.

Mrs. Emily E. Griffin, widow of Sammel P. Griffin, U. S. N., of Savannah, Ga., died yesterday at her home in this city in her cighty-third year. She was the daughter of the late Henry and Theodorine del Campo Edey. Her husband was born in Savannah in 1826, He was graduated from the Naval Academy at the head of his class. He died in Aspinwall, Panama, in 1887.

Mrs. George W. Richardson. Special Cable Despatch to Tun Sun. PARIS, Feb. 27 .- Mrs. George W. Richardson of Melrose, Mass., died here to-Weather at Winter Resorts. ATLANTIC, CITT, Feb. 27 .- Temperature

3; clear. BELLEAIR, Fla., Feb. 27.—Temperature. OLD POINT, Va., Feb. 27 .- Temperature 40; clear. Galveston, Tex., Feb. 27.—Tempere ture, 54; rain.
Asheville, N. C., Feb. 27.—Tempera ture, 46. PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27.-Tempera-

BORN. EUSTIS.—February 27, a son to Mr. and Mrs. George P. Eustis (nee Miss Street) of 1717 I street, N. W., Washington, MARRIED.

OOMIS-BELL.-Battell Loomis, son of Charles Battell Leomis, to Josephine M. A. H. Bell, daughter of Winslow Manly Bell, on February 14, 1914, in the Cathedral, Hamilton, Bermuda.

BUSSING.—After a brief illness, in Brooklyn, on Friday, February 27, Agnes Maude, youngest daughter of the late Robert S. and Mary K. Bussing. Puneral service will be held at the real-dence of her brother, 20 Gerden place, Brooklyn, on Sunday afternoon, March 1, at half past three. "THE FUNERAL CHURCH." 241 West Twenty-third street (Frank E. Camp-bell Building). Time of funeral hereafter. FISHER.--Katherine Everett, widow of William Bennett Fisher and mother of Henry Johnson Fisher and Mrs. H. Le Roy Whitney, on February 26, in the eixty-fifth year of her age.

Services at her late residence, 127 East
Fortieth street, at 11 A. M., Saturday, February 28. Interment at Marion, Ohio GRIFFIN.-At her residence in this city, on the 27th day of February, 1914, in the eighty-third year of her age, Emily E., widow of the late Samuel P. Griffin, U. S. N., of Savannah, Ga., and daughter of the late Henry and Theodorine del Campo Edey. uneral services at St. Stephen's Church.

Sixty-ninth street, near Broadway, on Sunday, March 1, at 1:39 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment private. JAEGER.—On February 26, 1914, August, beloved husband of Lille Jacger, aged sixty-five years. Services at Stephen Merritt's chapel, 228

Eighth avenue, near Twenty-first street, Saturday evening, 8 o'clock. JOLINE.—On February 25, at Princeton, N. J., Margaret D. Joline, daughter of the late William and Catharine A. Joline. Funeral services will be held at her late residence Monday, March 2, at 2 o'clock. eBRIDE .- At Englishtown, N. J., February 26, Eliza Jane Kinier, beloved wife of Andrew Stephenson McBride, aged 69. Funeral services at the Chapel of the Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, Eighth avenue and Nineteenth street, Saturday, 11 o'clock. Interment at Greenwood.

PECK.—Suddenly, on February 27, at the Presbyterian Hospital in New York, Norman Howe, infant son of Prank Edwin and Lillian Howe Peck of White Plains, N. Y.

Funeral private. PHILLIPS .- On Wednesday evening. February 25, 1914, at the Hotel San Remo, New York city, Edward Dudley Phillips, age 55 years. Funeral services at the Collegiate Reformed Church, corner of West End avenue and Seventy-seventh street, on Saturday morning, February 28, at 10 o'clock. REYNOLDS.—February 26. Emily Augusta Van Bensen, widow of Dr. James Banks

Reynolds, at her residence, 2 East Eighty-eighth street.

Puneral services at the late residence
Monday, March 2, at 10:30 A. M. THOMPSON.—On Friday, February 27, Maurice J. Thompson, husband of Services at his late residence, 267 Park street, Hackensack, N. J., on Monday, March 2, at 2:30 P.M. Interment private. Train leaves Jersey City via Erie for Central avenue at 1:44.

Elizabeth Bainton Thompson, aged 46

VAN DYK -- At Paterson, on February 27, 1914. Marcia A., wife of Francis C at her late residence, 357 Broadway, Paterson, at 2:30 P. M. Interment at convenince of family. Kindly omit dowers. AN HORNE,-On February 25, 1814, Mary Adelaide Van Horne, daughter of the late Jacob Van Horne of Jersey City. Funeral services at her late residen Maple avenue. Morristown, N. Saturday, the 28th, at 12 o'clock on ar rival of 10:30 A. M., D., L. & W. train

UNDERTAKERS

FRANK F. CAMPBELL 289 SE FUNERAL DIRECTOR TELEVIONE CHELSE 188 COURTEOUS ATTENTION FUNERAL CHURCE